

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

requiring the company to sell tickets to pupils in the schools of the city at the rate of two for five cents and to students enrolled in a college in the city, it could not deny the same privilege to students of another college.

---

HOBSON'S ADM'R v. HOBSON'S ADM'R. et al.

June 14, 1906.

[53 S. E. 964.]

1. Appeal—Decrees Appealable—Assignment of Dower.—A decree confirming the assignment to decedent's widow of one-third of a tract of land sought to be subjected to deceased's debts, and decreeing that the widow take title "with metes and bounds set forth in a plat filed with the report of commissioners, including buildings thereon, as her dower," was reviewable on appeal under Code 1904, § 3454, providing that a person who thinks himself aggrieved by any decree concerning title to or boundaries of land, etc., or by which the possession or title to property is changed, etc., may present a petition for an appeal.

[Ed. Note.—For cases in point, see vol. 2. Cent. Dig. Appeal and Error, §§ 118-125.]

2. Equity—Pleading—Amendment of Bill—New Case.—An original bill was filed to enforce payment of judgments for which decedents, father and son, were jointly liable, rendered for debts contracted prior to May 28, 1906, and to subject certain real estate owned by each thereto. It then transpired that the only real estate owned by either was a certain tract in controversy which was conveyed by the father to the son on May 28, 1896; the deed being recorded the following September. Complainant had no knowledge of such conveyance until long after the filing of his bill, when he was advised that the deed was voluntary and fraudulent as to creditors. Held, that an amended bill and a bill of revivor, seeking to set aside such conveyance for fraud, was not demurrable as alleging a cause of action not germane to the original bill.

---

MAYO, HYSORE & CO. v. PHILADELPHIA TEXTILE MACHINERY CO.

June 14, 1906.

[53 S. E. 967.]

Contracts—Construction—Duration.—A contract providing that it should continue for 18 months from date "and thereafter until 6 months shall have elapsed after written notice" of cancellation given by either party, was not an absolute contract for 2 years, but was terminable at the expiration of the 18 months by proper notice within a year from date.